

2019 Wrestling Advisory Committee
March 4, 2019

1. Recommend using 12 weight classes for the 2019-20 Girls Wrestling season.
2. Recommend using female weight assessments for determining the 12 girls weight classes which may change what the actual 12 weight classes are for the 2019-20 Girls Wrestling season.
- * 3. Recommend having a formal bylaw interpretation posted on the Wrestling page of the MSHSAA website for In-season Jamborees that applies to the sport of Wrestling: Use of weight classes, simulated matches counting or not counting against individual match limits during a season, weigh-in, etc.
- * 4. Recommend adding to district host selection criteria: After one school has hosted for two consecutive years and there are other schools in the district that meet the minimum criteria and want host the district, the district host site will be moved.
5. Recommend to qualify 16 state qualifiers per weight class and medal the top 6 at each weight class for Girls Wrestling, knowing that additional qualifiers will restrict and eliminate on mat warm-up time between rounds during the state tournament.
6. Recommend the state finals format continue to leave the girls mat in the center with Class 1, 2, 3 and 4 remaining placed around the center mat.
